

Installation

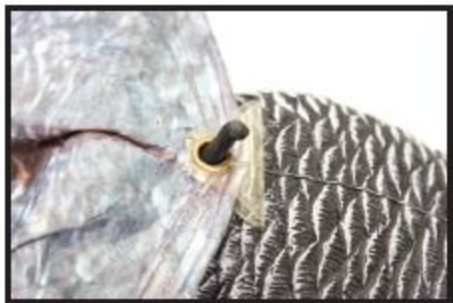

Step 1

Connect the head to the body by inserting the neck into the opening and through the slit in the belly.

Step 2

Push the cross strut on the top of the wings into the groove at the back of the head.

Step 3

Pull the circular metal grommet up and over the peg on the back of the neck.

Step 4

Spread the wings out by applying pressure to the braces, and pulling away from each other.